

We would be happy to get to know something about your academic/ professional career and it would be nice if you could describe your professional work in a few words.

During my studies, I have learned a lot of different subjects, which do not seem to have any link between each other. Today, I am glad to see that I still have to deal with a broad range of subjects making the work always interesting... and reminding me my chemistry lesson from the university!

How do you see yourself in your role as a citizen of the EU?

The importance of European decisions and law makes the involvement of each citizen each day more important. Unfortunately, the distance between decision makers and citizens seems to be too important for the moment... Unfortunately, we only know the few European agencies that we are dealing with every day.

What is your personal opinion regarding the most important challenges and reasons regarding a participation in the European Union as a nation?

In Europe, all the folks are proud of their identity and each difference has to be respected and conserved. This diversity makes every decision complicated and difficult to apply for all the citizens. Common values have to be found without destroying this heterogeneity.

What do you think about the importance of Alumni in terms of the cultural, academic and economical exchange?

Each European country is focused on its own problems. It is not possible for a citizen to be aware of the situation of its neighbour country as well to know their point of view of the situation of our country.

The international meetings are the best opportunities to understand the past and prepare the future.
